Dear Students and Parents/Guardians:

Greetings, Hawk Families! Reminder that tomorrow is a one-session day, Wednesday is a regular school day, and there will be no classes Thursday and Friday due to the NJEA Convention. One-session days start at regular time and end at 12:05. There will be no lunch periods.

In addition to tomorrow's one-session day, voting will take place in the RDMS gymnasium. Keep in mind that there is a good chance of delays at morning drop-off as well as at afternoon pick-up. Voters will enter and exit the building through the blacktop door closest to the front circle. During the day, students will report to an alternate location for physical education as entry to the gym will be closed off to keep our students apart from the voting location.

Following the long weekend, on Monday, November 13th, the middle school will be running an evacuation drill that will result in all students and staff walking to the high school. We expect students to be out of the building for approximately 45 minutes at some point in the morning. Local police will assist with the operation.

Finally, congratulations to the RDMS volleyball team for finishing the season undefeated and winning the league tournament last week! Separately, I would like to wish the best of luck to the competitors who will take part in the building Spelling Bee tomorrow during the school day!

Have a wonderful rest of the week!

Best Regards,

Robert Urbanovich
Principal, River Dell Middle School
